LIFE CLOSES FOR MRS. R.M'AFEE

Stephensport Resident. Had Been in Declining Health Buried in Rome, Ind.

Stephensport, Ky., June 9, (Special) —Mrs. Josephine McAfee, wife of Richard McAfee, Sr., departed this life, June 6, after a short illness. As she had not been in good health for several years her death was not unexpected.

Mrs. McAfee joined the Methodist church in early life and was always a consistent member. She spoke often of her abiding faith and hope of eternal glory. She was united in marriage to Richard McAfee, and for many years these two traveled down life's avenue together, sharing fully each other's joys and sorrows. The deceased had no children of her own but reared several who loved her as an own mother.

Mrs. McAfee was given to hospitality, and her home was always open to her friends. All who came were welcome, and never left without being impressed with their hostess' piety and interest in the things of God. She leaves her aged and beloved companion who has the love and sympathy of all who know him. Also three brothers survive.

The funeral services were conducted from the late residence at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, after which the remains were deposited in the cemetery near Rome, Ind.

Those attending the funeral from out of town were: Aaron Hall and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Cloverport, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed McAfee, of Irvington.

ICE CREAM SUPPER.

The Ladies Aid Society, of Glen Dean, Ky., will give an ice cream supper in that place on Saturday evening, June 21, 1919.

There will be music and games. Come and meet old friends and make new ones! A good time for all.

SKYDOME OPENS TUESDAY EVE

Open Air Theatre For Cloverports Movie Goers. Modern Improvements Added.

The "Lafayette Skydome" is the name given Cloverport's new open air movie house which had its opening Tuesday evening.

The Skydome is on Main street opposite the Bushman Theatre. It has been equipped equal to any first class open air theatre, and promises to be a very comfortable amusement resort on a hot summer's evening.

Mr. Holder, the manager, marked the opening by having special music and a very good crowd attended.

The Road Movement has long since passed the educational phase and today is a selling proposition—offering an article that will fill a recognized want.

Sells 138 Pounds of Wool at 83 1/2c.

Mr. Minor P. Payne, of Irvington has sold this spring from his flock of sheep, 138 pounds of wool at 83 1/2 cents.

Mr. Payne says he wintered 17 ewes and one buck. He has now 25 lambs, having lost only one.

E'TOWN CONFERENCE.

Of Methodist Ministers Of That District Met in Hardinsburg Last Week.

The Elizabethtown District Conference of Southern Methodist ministers closed a very beneficial meeting on Wednesday afternoon in Hardinsburg.

The conference was in session only two days with fifty ministers and delegates present who enjoyed the genuine hospitality of the people of Hardinsburg, in connection with the good meeting.

The three ministers who preached during the Conference were, Rev. J. G. Akin, of Lebanon, Rev. R. O. Henick, of Hodgenville and Dr. W. E. Arnold of Louisville.

A quota of $100,000 has been assessed the Elizabethtown District to be raised in five years for the Centenary Drive.

SACRED CANTATA ON SUNDAY EVE

The "Forty-second Psalm" Given by Members of M. E. Choir. Union Service.

In the absence of their pastor, Rev. A. N. Couch, the members of the Baptist congregation united with the Methodist on Sunday evening in the church of the latter, to hear the sacred cantata, "Forty-second Psalm" sung by the Methodist choir.

Both congregations were well represented, and preceding the music, the Rev. Rickard, pastor of the Methodist church, gave a talk on music showing how it had developed down through the ages.

The "Forty-second Psalm" is the words of the psalm set to music by Lee G. Kiatz, and is one of the prettiest and most effective short cantatas ever given in the churches here. It was very deeply appreciated by the audience.

The regular members of the choir were assisted in giving the cantata by Miss Edith Plank, of Hickory, N. C., and Miss Susanne Crutchfield, of Earlington, Ky., two charming soprano voices. Mr. Ira D. Behen directed the music with Miss Margaret Burn accompanist on the piano, and H. M. Behen, clarinet. Members of the choir are Miss Mildred D. Babbage, Miss Tula D. Babbage, Mrs. D. B. Phelps, Messrs. Ira D. Behen, M. M. Denton and Jno. Burn.

If better roads are to be desired, the only questions are how and when. If not desirable, their advocates are public enemies, and should be treated accordingly.

DRY FEDERATION OPENS CAMPAIGN

This Month in Ky. Bryan Will Tour State. Jno. P. Haswell Vice Pres. of Federation.

The State wide Prohibition Federation, which proposes to unify efforts toward prohibition and make certain the ratification of the statewide prohibition amendment in November, will begin an active campaign this month. J. Sherman Porter, of Lexington, for a quarter of a century a newspaper man in Kentucky and Ohio, has been named state publicity director, and will have charge of the campaign in large and small cities and in every county in the state. Headquarters were opened at Lexington, Monday, but will be moved to Louisville as the campaign grows warmer.

Fifty county chairmen to organize as many counties have already been appointed, and officials in the remainder of the counties will be named within the next week. Working programs are being sent out to each county, and orators and prohibition advocates of national prominence, including William Jennings Bryan have been engaged to make speaking tours of the state. Mr. Bryan, it is announced, will make ten speeches in the state during the campaign, which will continue from June 1, until November 4, the day of the election.

A meeting of the federation, which is made up of the Democratic Forward League, the Anti-Saloon League, the dry wing of the Republican party, the W. C. T. U., the Catholic Prohibition League and the Louisville Churchmen's Federation, was held in Louisville, last Thursday, when plans for the program to be followed in the campaign were discussed. The federation is a non-partisan organization, organized as a preparedness measure to meet opposition to the state amendment and prevent a wet victory due to apathy of those in favor of prohibition who are depending entirely on the national amendment.

An attempt will be made to create live public sentiment for the state amendment by speakers, literature posters, and other kinds of propaganda, to get out a large vote. The dry forces claim that they see no danger of defeat but want to meet the continual cry of the liquor forces that there is no need for the state amendment and prevent further fights against it which will follow if the majority for it is not overwhelming.

Judge Henry S. Barker, of Louisville, is president of the federation; Mrs. Julia R. Gunn, of Lexington, secretary; Colonel P. H. Callahan, of Louisville, treasurer; and Dr. W. N. Briney, of Louisville, Judge John P. Haswell, of Hardinsburg, and Henry M. Johnson, of Louisville, vice-presidents.

The executive committee is composed of Dr. A. J. Alexander, of the Democratic Forward League; Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of the W. C. T. U.; Dr. N. A. Palmer, of the Anti-Saloon League; Dr. W. S. Lockhart, the Louisville Churchmen's Federation; Judge John P. Haswell, of the dry wing of the Republican party; Colonel P. H. Callahan, of the Catholic Prohibition League; Judge Barker and Mrs. Gunn.—Shelby News.

TAYLOR'S GARAGE

Handsone New Edifice in Lewisport. Doing Excellent Auto Business.

Possibly one of the handsomest garages within the state of Kentucky is the one just completed in Lewisport, and owned by J. B. Taylor & Son.

The garage is 42 by 120 feet and made entirely of concrete with large concrete pillars adding to the attraction of the entrance of the building. It is fire proof and completely equipped for all kinds of repair work on any kind of automobiles.

Since January first, J. B. Taylor & Son have sold thirty Ford cars. One of the firm is to leave shortly for Detroit to work in the Ford plant and learn the makings of the universal car so as to be able to make any repairs on one when he returns to Lewisport.

When the Federal highway is completed, Taylor's garage has an excellent opportunity to increase in business and become a popular stopping place with motorists.

Wilson To Leave France In About Two Weeks. Paris, June 9.—President Wilson, it is now regarded as probable, will leave France for the United States within ten days or two weeks.

FOUR GRADUATED

From B. C. H. S. on Thursday Eve Rev. Paul Bagby Deliveries Commencement Address.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 9, (Special) —The Breckinridge County High School commencement exercises were held on Thursday evening, May 29, in the Methodist church before a large audience. The four young ladies who received their diplomas were Misses Cathleen Miller, Ada Ruth Gregory, Georgia Mac Haswell and Helen Miller.

Rev. Paul A. Bagby, of Louisville, delivered the commencement address, and the diplomas were presented by J. Raleigh Meador, County School Superintendent.

PRINCIPAL OF A $30,000 SCHOOL

G. R. McCoy Making Wonderful Success of School Work in Smith's Grove, Ky.

Mr. G. R. McCoy, a former principal of the Cloverport Graded School, who is in the city now with Mrs. McCoy and their pretty little daughter, Miss Lou Watson McCoy, visiting Mrs. McCoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Pate, is enjoying his vacation and at the same time looking forward to the next school year.

Mr. McCoy was reelected principal of the Smith's Grove School, but this year his duties will be more complex than last as his school has consolidated with the Pleasant Hill school. A new building costing $30,000 is to be erected this summer and fall for the consolidated schools and will be completed by Christmas.

The building will be in Smith's Grove. It is to be two stories high, will front 114 feet, and be 70 feet deep. It will contain eight class rooms, teachers' rest room, principal's office, auditorium with a seating capacity of eight hundred, basement with gymnasium and domestic science department, girls' play room and laboratory.

Much credit towards the erection of the building is given Mr. McCoy, and the Smith's Grove paper says, "he is one of the best principals the county has ever had." In appreciation of his service the school board increased Mr. McCoy's salary from $1,200 to $1,500 a year, and they have found him to be highly educated, a splendid leader and a perfect gentleman.

CHATUQUA BOOK-ED FOR JULY 25-28

Preliminary Arrangements Completed For Central Community Chatapua.

Miss N. T. Clements, organizer for the Central Community Chatapua Company, was in Cloverport last Tuesday to complete the final preliminary arrangements for the five days chatapua which is booked for this city from July 25th to 28th inclusive.

Miss Clements held a meeting on Tuesday evening with the patrons of the chatapua in order to elect the necessary officers and various chairmen among the local business men and women. Those who were elected and have accepted their places are: R. L. Oelze, vice pres. Paul Lewis, Oelze, vice president; Paul Lewis, secretary; M. M. Denton, treasurer; Miss Eliza May, chairman ticket committee; T. A. Carter, Chairman advertising committee; Miss Eva May, chairman Junior chatapua committee; Conley Arnold, gateman.

Mr. Julian H. Brown was elected chairman of the ground committee but he declined to accept as he will be out of town at that time.

Miss Clements says she has been with the Central Community Chatapua Company for five successive years and this year's program is the best the Company has ever succeeded in sending out.

CONFERENCE OF THE HOME SERVICE DEPT. OF RED CROSS

Miss Elizabeth Skillman and Miss Irene Jarboe are in Louisville, this week attending the conference of the Home Service Department of the American Red Cross for the Elizabethtown District.

The meeting was to have been held in Elizabethtown in May, but was transferred to Louisville for the 11, and 12, of June. These Conferences are being held all over the state in the interest of pressing the home service work of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Couch was seventy-two years old. Rev Couch left Friday morning for Tennessee to accompany the remains to Illinois for the funeral.

COUNTIES WEST OF PADUCAH ARE FAVORED FOR RIVER ROUTE

Henderson, Ky., June 9.—The 20-cent road levy tax was carried in Union county Saturday by a majority of 1,060. The vote was, for 1,370 against 310. Union county was the last county on the Ohio river to vote on the levy tax and the Ohio River Federal Highway is now assured from Louisville to Paducah. All other counties along the river have voted the 20-cent tax or made provisions by bonds to cover the cost of the road.

MISSING MEN FOUND

Red Cross' Great Work in Finding 958 Men Who Were Reported As Missing in Action.

Hundreds of men reported missing in action, 958 of them to be exact, have been found since the first of May through the efforts of the Red Cross Department of Military Relief in the three army camps in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Red Cross workers in the camps, say reports sent to Lake Division headquarters in Cleveland, Ohio, have questioned men of each organization that comes into the camp to be demobilized, as to what they know of their comrades still reported missing. The search has been successful beyond all expectations.

Often someone has seen a "missing man" go into action, go over the top, hit by shell, taken to some definite hospital. Whatever has become of these lost men. American Red Cross camp service workers manage to find out all about it.

In Camp Sherman (O.) definite news of 464 men has been obtained. In Camp Taylor (Ky.) news of 486 and in Fort Benjamin (Ind.) news of 8. Each instance means that some that some family has been relieved of the suspense of agonized waiting for news through the work of the Red Cross men.

K. OF P. MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD

Sunday Afternoon. Rev. Rickard Made Appropriate Remarks. Large Crowd Attends

Even tho a heavy black cloud in the skies threatened rain every minute, there was an unusually large gathering of people at the Cloverport cemetery on Sunday afternoon to attend the annual memorial service conducted by the local Knights of Pythias lodge.

On account of the unsettled weather the services were made a little shorter than on previous occasions. Rev. W. O. Rickard gave the most appropriate remarks, commending the Knights for observing this occasion each year; and what a sweet custom it was to remember the dead by scattering flowers upon their graves. Each former Knights' grave was marked by a flag and a floral offering placed on it before the services were concluded.

The guests were carried to and from the cemetery in automobiles furnished by the Lodge, and the lemonade that they had served was delightfully cool and refreshing.

COMMUNICANTS

Twenty-two Boys and Girls Receive Their First Communion in St. Rose Church.

Big Type Poland Chinas The Farmer's Hog.

I raised the pig that won first in the Pig Club last year. I have them good enough to win again this year, if properly fitted, and they are priced worth the money too. These are the kind of pigs that go out and make good and please their owners.

In a few weeks I will be weaning some of the best pigs that I have ever raised. See them before you buy elsewhere. Here you get the pig you buy; no drawing for choice, no lottery. I sell hogs and satisfaction.

The sows of my herd come from three of the best hog-producing states of the Union. I have never let money stand between me and the hog I wanted to improve my herd.

I also have two males large enough for service from a litter of ten, choice individuals, for sale now.

The pork barrel is the end of the hog. I have the kind that fill it.

The sow pigs are all sold. Choice mail pigs for sale at weaning time.

WARM WEATHER IS FAVORABLE TO CROPS IN NORTHWEST SECTION

Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin Corn Fields Are Planted And Much of it Already Up.

Chicago—North Western Railroad's weekly crop report is summarized by states as follows:

Illinois: Warm weather was very favorable for rapid growth of vegetation and good progress has been made. Corn planting has been completed under favorable conditions. Winter wheat and rye are heading and are in fine shape. Other grains, pastures, and haylands are in excellent condition.

Wisconsin: Weather conditions are perfect and growing crops have made good headway. Early potatoes are planted and last potato planting is now in progress. Reports indicate an acreage of about the same as last year. A large acreage of peas has been planted and weather conditions are anticipating a heavy pack this year. Winter wheat and rye are in excellent condition. Pastures are good and prospects are for a large hay crop.

Minnesota and South Dakota: There has been warm weather with no rainfall and the condition of all grain is very satisfactory at this time. Corn planting is practically finished. In some sections early planted corn is up and looking good. The surplus moisture is drying out rapidly, though the present soil moisture is sufficient for several days more.

Iowa: Another week of ideal growing weather resulted in good progress of crops. Corn is all planted and a large percentage is already up and showing a good stand. In some districts it has already been cultivated for the first time. Oats and small grain are in good condition, and the hay crop promises to be the best for years. Showers all over the territory Saturday night should be very beneficial.

Nebraska: There has been good growing weather with scattered showers and heavy rains. Winter wheat is in excellent condition. Corn planting is well along and in some districts early planted is six or eight inches above the ground with a good stand. Pastures are in good shape.

Chicago—Illinois Central's Weekly Crop Report covering southern states follows: Kentucky and Tennessee: Weather is cool with rains. Tobacco plants are in good shape, resetting has been delayed by rains. Berries and vegetables are doing well. Although retarded by wet weather the prospects for cotton are not encouraging. It is necessary to replant crop. However, a very small acreage was originally planted.

Mississippi and Louisiana: Weather conditions are unfavorable on account of continued rains. Cotton is doing fairly well, but needs warm, dry weather. Rice is in good shape. Berries and vegetables are in good condition. The movement is about over.

PROGRESS MADE IN GARDEN WORK

Retired Farmer Resumes Home Duties After Using Trutona a Week.

Owensboro, Ky., June 10, 1919.—I'm able to get out in the garden and work, now—the first work I've done in four months." Walter Samuels, a well known retired farmer residing at 1310 Hathaway street, Owensboro, said recently. Mr. Samuels has been a resident of Owensboro for the past 14 years.

"Work's really a pleasure for me, since I've taken Trutona," he continued. "I was suffering from muscular rheumatism. My hands and limbs would swell so badly I couldn't do anything. I also suffered severe pains in my spinal column and chest. My appetite—why, I didn't eat hardly enough to keep me alive."

"One week ago I was suffering untold agony, but today I feel better than I have in years and Trutona's the reason. The swelling has left my limbs. The pains in my chest have ceased to bother me too. My appetite is improved, also. I've spent $1000 trying to get relief but Trutona has done more for me than all the rest put together. I'm sure Trutona will do the same for others suffering as I did."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Cloverport, Ky., at Wedding's Drug Store.

port gives the following estimates: Winter wheat condition, 96.1; indicated crop, 900,000,000 bushels. Spring wheat condition, 95.5; indicated crop, 345,000,000 bushels. Oats condition, 93.4; indicated crop, 1,460,000,000 bushels. Rye condition, 95.1; indicated crop, 93,000,000 bushels. Barley conditions, 91.3; indicated crop, 225,000,000 bushels. Corn planting is delayed, and acreage is likely to show somewhat less than last year. Plant condition is below normal, because of the lateness, but the soil and moisture conditions are highly favorable.

SEALED BIDS

The County Board of Education will meet in the office of the County Superintendent at Hardinsburg on Saturday, June 14, for the purpose of receiving bids for the erection of two school houses in Breckinridge county.

One house to be built at Hardins, D 2, Sub. 6, three miles from Cloverport.

One house to be built at Hazel Dell, D 2, Sub. 3, three miles from Sample.

Plans and specifications being the same as those required in bids advertised to be received on May 19, and may be seen at the office of the County Superintendent or will be mailed upon request.

Bids to be sealed and filed with the Board not later than 1:00 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, June 14, 1919. Right reserved to reject any or all bids.

J. Raleigh Meador, County Superintendent.

CLOVERPORT

JUNE 11, 1919

SOLDIER SETTLEMENT PLAN PROVING POPULAR.

More than 35,000 inquiries from soldiers and sailors have been sent to Lane's Bureau seeking information relative to the soldier-settlement plan of providing work and homes for returned soldiers on reclaimed land. In addition to these inquiries already made, the Reclamation Record reports that more are coming in at the rate of six hundred a day.

The Soldier-settlement plan has been endorsed by the Daughters of the Revolution and the American Federation of Labor, besides scores of other organizations.

The bill providing for the soldier-settlements was not passed on before Congress adjourned in March, so it is to be reintroduced at the next session. In the meantime, the State legislatures are taking action by appointment of committees to cooperate with the Federal Government in connection with the soldiers-settlement plan.

As for what has been done in our own State, Gov. Stanley has appointed a committee of men from Kentucky to cooperate with the Government.

It is fairly evident that the outdoor life and coming in closer contact with God's great out-of-doors has given many a soldier a different view of life. Whereas, he may have looked at farming as a drudgery and with few assets, he can see it now as Lincoln did when he was heard to say that "no other occupation opens so wide a field for profitable and agreeable combination of labor with cultivated thought as farming."

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Apparently, money easily made burns in the pockets of many people who are searching the markets for new forms of speculative investments. Promoters who overlook the possibilities of soft drinks are neglecting the opportunity of a lifetime. Formerly, when the women and children on the 6,000,000 farms of the country wanted to quench their thirst on a hot day, they were obliged to be content with pump water; but now, thanks to the bottlers of soft drinks, all the sweet and foamy attractions of the town or city soda fountain can be found in the farm cellar. Production now is 3,000,000,000 bottles annually. Raw materials are mostly a little flavoring syrup and 100,000 tons of sugar. The balance is water and carbon dioxide gas. Water costs nothing and a little gas goes a great way. When the Constitutional Amendment gets to working there will be millions of people not on farms who will be glad to drink carbonized sweetened water. The prospect is so promising of dividends that it seems strange no one has yet attempted to discount its future.

The Boy Scouts are in prominence this week. They are in the midst of a national drive for 1,000,000 associate members. The Scouts have a splendid organization, and they should not have any difficulty in securing their coveted goal for new members.

It has been estimated that prohibition will cost the Government $500,000,000 this year. But what are dollars and cents in comparison to the hearts that are broken and homes that are wrecked each year from the use of whisky!

After the heroism displayed by Lieut.-Commander Read, Hary Hawker and Sergt. York, we imagine the small boy is having a hard time to decide whether he wants to be a flyer or a war hero.

The Breckenridge News is made up of eight pages of interesting local news this week. You'll have to read every page or else miss some local happening.

After Cloverport succeeds in getting the Federal Highway through here, our next aim should be water works.

FARM AND STOCK

Robt. M. Triplet, of Bewleyville has sold his farm near Guston and realized $1,700 profit.

Our philosopher says: If it paid Uncle Sam to keep camp stables clean it'll pay to keep hog pens, cow-sheds and an' stables on the farm clean.

Breckenridge County folks are indebted to Hon. Jno. P. Haswell and Squire D. C. Heron for securing the Government motor truck from Frankfort for this county.

Saturday, May 31st, was wool, cattle and hog day in Webster. Wool sold for 55 cents per lb., and was bought by H. H. Norton.

Harvey Stillwell has the nicest crop of corn we have seen on the road. It is all up, good stand, but needs the plow.

A wheat production of 1,236,000,000 bushels this year, combining the winter and spring wheat crops, is the forecast by the department of agriculture from the condition of the crop June 1.

The corn crop in Holts bottom is coming up nicely, a lot of it just coming through the ground. The wheat crop looks good and will be ready for the harvest next week.

G. A. Wright, McQuady sold a car load of cattle in Louisville, Monday June 9, at $13.75. His average was 900 pounds. The load brought him over $3,000.

E. P. Hardaway, of Bewleyville, has a cow that has had three calves in 11 months, having had twins Sunday, June 11. Wonder what other cow in Breckenridge can beat it?

Crops all over the county are looking fine, while they are late they are growing and doing their best to make up for lost time. The tobacco crop is estimated 25 per cent short of last year. If weather conditions remain good for a week or ten days there will be nearly a full crop planted. Lots of corn being planted this week.

Reports from all sections of Kentucky show a decided interest in the Farmer's Community Meetings which are to be held this summer. Twenty counties have already perfected their organizations and are waiting to have their dates definitely fixed. These dates have to be most carefully adjusted so that nothing may conflict to keep the meetings from being a pronounced success.

The first group of three meetings will be held in Bell, Knox and Clay Counties. Other group meetings will be held along the L. & N. toward Louisville. Later the tents and speakers will move to reach one or two groups between Louisville and Cincinnati; then into the eastern end of the State. By early August the western half of the State will be reached. Any information concerning these meetings can be had by addressing a letter to the State Development Committee, Board of Trade Building, Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Jno. A. Hook and family, of Hardinsburg, motored to Cloverport, Saturday for an outing. Mr. Hook said this was his first visit to Cloverport in twenty-eight years. But he is a very busy farmer and one can understand his not visiting much. Mr. Hook is noted for fine gardens altho he says this year that it is not doing much on account of the rains.

AMERICA TO SEND GRAIN TO EUROPE

47,000,000 Bushels to Be Sent Altogether. Consumption in U. S. Has Increased.

Paris, June 3.—A preliminary survey of the import necessities of Europe except Russia shows that the area will need 700,000,000 bushels of wheat and rye at a minimum or 850,000,000 bushels as a possible maximum. Herbert C. Hoover, head of the allied relief organization, said in a statement issued to-day. The export surplus of wheat and rye from the larger exporting countries indicate that the needs of Europe can be met. Mr. Hoover estimates the exports of the United States will be 470,000,000 bushels.

"Through our organization and in cooperation with the various Governments," the statement says, "we have completed a preliminary survey of the food prospects of Europe and the import necessities for the harvest year beginning August 1, and the world's supplies available to meet these needs."

Crop Near Normal.

"We estimate the total prospective European yield of wheat and rye outside Russia, as of May 1, after deducting seed, at 1,350,000,000 bushels. This indicates a crop of about 77 per cent of pre-war normal. The pre-war consumption, outside of seed was about 2,500,000,000 bushels indicating a net import of about 950,000,000 bushels, if consumption were normal next year. The somewhat diminished population and the diminished buying power militate against full normal consumption, but the least possible consumption with the maintenance of public health we estimate at 2,250,000,000 bushels, or an import on a minimum basis of about 700,000,000 bushels.

"The consumption will necessarily be to a great degree a factor of the financial recuperation and ability to pay for imports and is also influenced by the tendency to eat more bread and less of the more expensive meat and fats. Restriction of consumption will require continuation of the rigid control of distribution. People everywhere are sick of rations and every State will make a supreme effort to get from under this blight. Some countries, therefore, will get away from the minimum so that an import demand of 850,000,000 bushels is possible."

Big Surplus Likely.

"The present stocks and crop conditions in the larger exporting countries would indicate that there should be in the coming harvest year an export surplus of wheat and rye of from 870,000,000 bushels to 900,000,000 bushels, but of this other countries than Europe require about 100,000,000 bushels, leaving the supply of from 770,000,000 bushels to 800,000,000 available for Europe.

"The consumption in the United States has increased to an extraordinary degree in the year. From the 1918 crop of wheat and rye we will export about 270,000,000 bushels and as the 1919 crop promises at least 200,000,000 bushels larger than 1918, it seems that we can export at the present rate of consumption about 470,000,000 bushels. The minimum export surplus from Canada, Argentina, Australia and minor countries may be estimated at 400,000,000 bushels while Russia and India may be considered out of the export list next year."

Grand Conductress Here.

Mrs. Emma Croninger, of Covington, who is the Grand Conductress of the Kentucky Eastern Star Lodges, and acting as Deputy Grand Matron, visited the Cloverport Chapter of the Eastern Star on Thursday evening. After meeting with the members, an informal reception and banquet was tendered Mrs. Croninger.

U. S. Navy Anti-Submarine Flotilla Now On 'The Mississippi River.

The Anti-Submarine Flotilla, which the Navy Department assembled for a visit to the Mississippi and its tributaries, is now on the river. It includes the U. S. N. Submarine K5, the destroyer Isabel, the Submarine Chasers and the Flying Boats; all of which with a majority of their officers have seen active service in the War Zone. They completely illustrate the types of ships, guns and equipment which were used in fighting the "U" boats. The flotilla was sent to the Mississippi to give the people of this section every opportunity of seeing these ships, and of making a close inspection of them.

Preceded by several days start by one of the Chasers, the flotilla is passing up the river to St. Louis.

This port will be made the northern base, and on the trip down a visit will be made to all of the principal ports on either side of the river. In event of several towns being grouped, or accessible to a landing, the flotilla will call at the nearest landing. The itinerary is now being completed and every town to be visited will be notified in ample time of the coming of the Navy Fleet. A Scout Chaser will leave St. Louis in advance of the flotilla to call at all towns to complete arrangements.

It is also planned to have ships of the flotilla call at the principal ports on the Ohio above Cairo, the Mississippi above St. Louis, and the Illinois River. The exact dates and itinerary will be announced.

The flotilla carries a Navy band, a glee club of Blue Jackets and a baseball team. A display will be made at each port of motion pictures of navy life and training.

A NEW FIRM

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Cloverport Rapid Transfer Co. Wash Board and his mule, Charger, forming a partnership under the firm name of Board & Charger and incorporated to run during the life of Charger.

All cash business will be in the hands of Wash and all had accounts will be charged off to Charger. The company is capitalized at $50 and can be sued as well as sue, but if there should ever be a judgment against the company it shall be rendered against Charger and should a judgment be rendered in favor of the company Wash will collect.

The other day Wash was coming charging down the street and yelled at Charger to stop to take on a passenger and Wash had to yell so loud he concluded he would look in his ears to see what was the matter. He peeped in one of them and out flew an English sparrow, then Wash took a squirt in the other and found a nest of young mice. After being relieved of his ear trouble Charger blew his horn and away they went charging down the street.

Wash says he is dieting Charger on horse weeds to keep down fatty "conglomerashum" of the heart, and that he is so fastidious he has to drop a grain of corn in the trough in order to get him started on the weeds.

Wash is going to build a silo in order to house the crop of tobacco he is going to raise and incidentally some horse weeds so that Charger will have his winter rations. He says that barring accidents, and Charger don't charge too much and break his wagon, he is going to increase the capital stock to $50 next spring and go into the general contracting business. He says he would like to be city scavenger but Charger is so delicate about the stomach and his sense of smell so acute, he has given up the idea.

CARTER'S LANDING

Floyd Carter sailed in yesterday, on the good ship Home Sweet Home. He brought home all kinds of medals, titles etc. Now he didn't win these on the battle front bustin the Hindenburg line Na no Moxie. It was at chow killing contests. He won the Croix de Guerre for bravery at a pie smashing contest. The boys say when it comes to smashing chow Floyd is the greatest destroyer the army ever produced. Floyd became so sea sick going over he only could eat five meals a day. Seated one evening he had his head hung over the deck feeding the fishes, a comrad came over thought he would cheer him up a little says oh, look Floyd the moon is coming up. Well, says Floyd I thought it was about time, as I have thrown up every thing else.

The Bachelors Club held its annual election Wednesday last at the Waldorf Astoria. All the old officers were retained except Banty Hayden, James Hawkins, of Tobinsport, succeeds him as Treasurer. Banty explained that the responsibilities wuz to great. Handling so much money got on his nerves. There are some bachelors that have got it into their cranium that the bachelors club is an organization to promote bachelorhood, Na na Gerilda, its to promote matrimony. The object of this club is to get your name before the public as a matrimonial proposition. Now don't let these false reports keep you out any longer. So come on in now and avoid the rush. Paul Lewis was voted a cromo for bravery at the club last meeting. Why, because he was the first member to get married since the club organized a year ago. He launches out into the sea of matrimony.

mony next Wednesday. A rumor is afloat that there will be another wedding in Cloverport soon. Why because Emeal Nolte and Charlie Fallon has been seen promading the last few Sundays.

Say cousin Lodiburg we was surely glad to learn that your name was canteen. Just to mention that word gives us some relief under this war time prohibition. Sharkey Gregory formerly of Berlin and Judge Henry DeHaven Moorman rid the bachelors clubs goat last week.

THE HISTORIC OLD

GALT HOUSE.

A despatch from Louisville, Ky., says that "the historic old Galt House" has passed forever as a hotel and will end its days as a warehouse. The Galt House was a "Dickens hotel," one of the hotels to which the novelist referred in "American Notes." Of it he wrote, "We were as handsomely lodged as though we were in Paris." Dickens was generous in his praise of the American hotels at which he stopped on his first visit to this country. Some of these were Barnum's of Baltimore, the Tremont of Boston, the Carlton House of New York and the planters of St. Louis. These have all disappeared, although the name of the last is still preserved. The only Dickens hotels of which the buildings remain are, perhaps, the Galt House and the West Point Hotel.—Ed. in New York Sun.

BUY A HOME!

Mr. Charles L. Houston is at the head of the great Lukens Steel and Iron Company, of Coatesville, Penn. He says that when Coatesville went dry a Polak workman came to him and said:

"No beer, no whiskey, me no kin work."

The man was told that he would have to get along without beer and whiskey some way. In a few weeks he came back with shining face and said:

"No beer, no whiskey, me buy a house!"

There ought to be a hundred thousand houses built on the money that Prohibition will save its first year. Buy your own home first.

That Hidden Money May Be Stolen Tonight

If you have money hoarded about the house thieves may be scheming at this very instant to take it from you.

Crime is organized and criminals keep lists of people who are afraid to put their money in the bank.

If you don't believe us read the papers for a week with this in view and you'll notice many cases where the savings of a lifetime have been stolen.

PRETTY JUNE WEDDING

A very pretty and simple wedding will be that of Miss Ruth O'Bryan and Mr. Paul Lewis which will take place Wednesday morning, June 11th, in the St. Rose Catholic church at 7 o'clock. A solemn, nuptial high mass will be used. Rev. J. S. Henry, the pastor, will be the celebrant, assisted by Rev. John M. Abel, of Rhodelia, Ky., as deacon and Rev. Norman, of Hardinsburg, as sub-deacon. The wedding music will be in charge of the Ursuline sisters.

The bride will wear a stylish traveling suit of field mouse shade with hat to match, and a corsage of cream roses. Her sister, Miss Gussie O'Bryan will be maid of honor and her dress will be of taupe georgette and taffeta worn with a corsage of cream roses.

Mr. Raphael Lewis, brother of the groom, will act as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will leave for a short bridal trip and upon their return to Cloverport they will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis.

STEPHENS-BASHAM WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Georgia A. Stephens and Mr. Richard Lewis Basham took place Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic church. The ceremony was solemnized by the pastor, Rev. Fitzgerald in the presence of relatives and friends. The attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Anna Stephens, and Mr. Owen Basham, Miss Treacy Rose Howard, and Mr. Wilber Starks, Little Misses Beulah Lee Taylor and Louise Davis. Each carried a basket of carnations and ferns.

The bride was attractively dressed in a white Georgette gown and veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of valley lilies.

A wedding breakfast was served the members of the bridal party and family at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Basham is the attractive daughter of Mr. George Stephens, the groom is a prosperous young farmer, of Irvington. Mr. and Mrs. Basham left for a short wedding trip and on their return will reside at Irvington.—Owensboro Messenger.

Letters From Peyton Brashear

Following are several letters from Peyton Brashear written while he was in France. Pvt. Brashear is now in New York and will probably be at home soon.

Dear Mother: I received your letter today and I was glad to hear from you. I am well and I hope this will find you the same.

This is a little village that I like fine. We have been here for some time. I have been transferred to the Supply Co., 314 Infantry. I like it better. I work in the Supply Officer. I have a good officer, he is good to me and doesn't care what I write very much. We have a good Y. M. C. A. man and he tries hard to have something new for us all the time. He has all kinds of music and singing; band music, moving pictures, and he gives us all kinds of candy, cakes, chewing gum, cigarettes and tobacco. We have all kinds of games for amusement. We play foot ball and base ball.

I am sending you some pictures of Denuchateau where I have been.

His Trip Over.

You asked me how I stood the trip across the ocean. Coming over submarines chased us all over the sea. If it had not been for the submarine destroyers we had with us they would have sunk our ship. We had several battles with the German subs.

We were 14 days going over. We had a hard time on the front, the ground was waving like an earthquake. All the time we were under heavy machine guns, fire and gas, and bullets whistling all around us, explosives too. How I escaped not being killed I do not know. I got one scratch. I was crawling through a barbed wire tangle on no man's land while shells were bursting all around me tearing holes in the ground big enough to put a tobacco hogshead in. It was not very pleasant at that time in No Man's Land.

Got Used To Shell Fire.

We did not care for being under shell fire. We got used to being shot at. We did not seem to care then tho it is awful to think about now.

I had some close calls. I came very near getting hit by big shells a good many times. We were under heavy shell fire and machine gun fire 9 days and nights. How I came out safe I don't know. I didn't seem to care anything about it. It was all day long and all night long. We did not care for it then. There were men killed around us, and several wounded.

I was on the firing line when the Armistice was signed. The German soldiers were about a half mile away when we got the orders to cease firing. Some of the German soldiers came over the line and talked to us. They said they were sick and tired of war and were glad the war was over.

Great Loss Of Men In 79th. Div.

The 79th. Division lost more men between Sept. 26th and the end of the war than any other division in the American Army. The First Division had been fighting constantly for more than five and half months and in that time they lost 5,248 men while the 79th. Division fighting just a month and a half lost almost half as many. The 79th. went into battle again on Sept. 26th, and was relieved Oct. 1st, then returned to the battlefield on November 1st, northeast of Verdun. But we did not do much fighting until November 7th, from then on the 79th., was engaged in a bitter struggle. We had a hard time at the front. I will tell you more about the war when I come home.

We are going about 80 miles from here East of this place, Mosats La-Grange, France. We will be near Showmount. It will take us about four days to make the trip.

I have had a good time here, better than any time since I have been in the army. I will write and tell you about my trip when I get there so good-bye. Your son, Peyton Brashear, Supply Co., 314 Inf., 79 Div., A. E. F., A. P. O. 771, France.

Written April First.

Dear Mother: How are you? This is a little village, Chalvines, France, but it is clean. I like this place fine. You will find some views of Commercency DeHotel Deville, a big city where I stayed all night. It is a big place.

As we were going to Chalvines we were five days making the trip, snowed one day, had a four inch snow. We had a lot of trouble keeping the big motor trucks in the road. They slipped and slid all over the road. The fourth day the snow melted off and we traveled very well the rest of the way. It was a long old trip and

I was glad when we got here. I don't know how long we will be here, every move we make is a step nearer home.

I got two letters from Seddie. He is well, said he did not know when he would come home.

Gen. Pershing Reviews 79th. Div.

Gen. Pershing reviewed the 79th. Division last Saturday the 12th. It was my first time to see him. We went 10 miles from here to review. General Pershing said the 314 Inf. was the best on the parade ground. The 79th. Div. is some army when they all get together.

We sure will be on the way home soon. My best regards to you. Your son, Pvt. Peyton Brashear.

Ready To Cross.

Dear Mother: How are you? I got your letter tonight and was glad to hear from you. I have moved again so we will soon be ready to cross the pond. Our trip across will not be so dangerous as it was coming over here. I think I will get home by June 1st. I have been gone a year the 27th. of this month.

I guess Seddie is in the U. S. by now. Hope he crossed over safe. I got a letter from Owen Bruner. He told me lots of news. I was glad to hear from him. I got a letter from Stanford Brashear. I have been getting lots of mail. I have sent you several souvenirs. Hope you have gotten them all right. Hope to see you soon. So by, by. With love Peyton.

Landed In New York.

Dear Mother: I am in New York. We left France, May 15th, and were ten days coming across. I will be at home soon. Your son, Peyton.

WRITTEN TO MRS. WROE

The letter following is addressed to Mrs. Margaret Wroe, of McQuady. It is from Pvt. 1c W. Simon Smart, who is condoling with the mother in the loss of her brave son, Silas McGary, who died of pneumonia in France. In it Pvt. Smart says:

Dear Mrs. Wroe: It was with much sorrow I read in The Breckenridge News of Silas' death in Liverpool, England, of pneumonia, that awful fatal disease of the Army.

I have not received such a shock since I entered the Army. Silas, in my estimation and presence, was a true Kentucky gentleman. He was one of my best friends. He was especially kind, loveable and entertaining to every one. I am so sorry to know of his being with us no more.

It seems so bad for such honorable young men to leave a nation of freedom and prosperity to give the same "Peace and Happiness" to a lost world and after doing his bit for liberty. Ready to return to the greatest and only nation on God's earth. Bad! indeed, to give such a noble life to the treacherous disease of "flu" and its older and more fatal brother, pneumonia. Such men of the old U. S. have broken the greatest battle front and stopped the most barbarous treatment ever known to the world.

England may say her Royal Airmen, France her Noble Sons, and Italy her Wit, caused the turning tide of the war. But ask any Bosche who won the war and who were the best fighters, the Basche's quick and rather solemn answer will be, "Amer-i-can" or "Yanks". Let us be glad and thankful we have not lost more of our noble sons, and the end has come and the world shall be free from barbarism forever. Let us pray to God that we may see peace and a League of Nations against war.

I hope your son, Lindsey will return to you soon, a noble and grand son of America, Mrs. Wroe. I have had quite a great deal of experience in France. Know the sorrow of war by losing a cousin in July. I am in the hospital work and know the treatment the boys get. I nursed about 200 "flu" patients and lost 2 men with pneumonia.

I hope to be home by July 4th. Mrs. Wroe, accept my thanks for your kindness in the past, and sincerest regrets and sorrow of dear Silas' fatality. His friend, Simon Smart. Address: Pvt. 1c Nurse, Waldo S. Smart, Camp Hospital No. 39, La-Rochelle, France, A. P. O. 735.

MOTHER'S LETTER.

Mrs. J. H. Cannon, of Roff, Kv., had this splendid letter from her fine soldier boy on Mother's Day in which he says:

St. Aignon, France. Dear Mother: Will take pleasure in writing you a few lines today as this is known as Mother's Day, and let you know that I am well and have not forgotten you altho today finds me in a foreign land and many, many thousand miles apart. But today as I am writing you my thoughts go back to my childhood days, and today I recognize and appreciate the fact and can thoroughly say that I was brought up under the care and protection of a mother who devoted her time and influence for the future welfare of her children. And the result is, you taught me right from wrong, and created in my heart a desire to be a gentleman and to lead a straight forward life. And any where I am there will always remain with me in my heart and memory an appreciation for what you have made me, and I will give you my word of honor that this feeling will always remain with me as a reward for the sacrifice which you made for me in the past.

I will close for this time. Hope to see you all in a month from this date. I remain as ever your son, Pvt. Claude Cannon, Camp Hospital No. 26, Dental Infirmary, A. P. O. 727, A. E. F., France.

MOTHER'S DAY LETTER.

All mothers prize their Mother's Day letters, and Mrs. Jerry Tilford, of Fordsville has every reason to be very proud of this letter from her splendid son, Corp. Arthur Tilford, who is in France.

Dear Mother: One year ago I was in Camp Taylor and honored the day by writing to you, and today I am far from home and among strangers and glad to honor the day again.

I am glad to have such a dear sweet Mother to write to. We have so much to be thankful for. Before long every day will be Mother's Day, and that will be when I get home again. It is great to know that we have a home to come to and a real mother waiting for the return of her boy. It makes us strive to do better, live cleaner and to do nothing that we might be sorry for and when we are doing these things it is, I know, in answer to your prayer, and when I am home again you will know I am the boy you want me to be.

We feel and know almost that we will perhaps leave here for home the last of this month, and what a home coming we will have. I sure wish I was there now.

It is raining here today and I have not yet been outside of camp. Have been in the "Y" all morning. But I think I will go down in town late this afternoon. I was down at the Red Cross canteen yesterday and heard a concert given by the 33rd. Division Band. I am going to enclose a souvenir of poems given out by the Y. M. C. A. They also gave out a flower but I do not know the name of it and we are allowed to wear them.

What did you do Easter? I, or we rather, stood inspection in the morning. We have inspection every Sunday morning.

I think this is all. Will give my seat to some other boy so he can write a letter to his mother, so will close. I am feeling fine and being good. With love, Paul. Corp. Arthur P. Tilford, Co. B. 309 Engineers, A. P. O. 716, A. E. F., France.

THE MOST DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and commence to lag in their duties, look out! Find out what the trouble is—without delay. Whenever you feel nervous, weak, dizzy, suffer from sleeplessness, or have pains in the back—wake up at once. Your kidneys need help. These are signs to warn you that your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. They are only half doing their work and are allowing impurities to accumulate and be converted into uric acid and other poisons, which are causing you distress and will destroy you unless they are driven from your system.

COURT TO DECIDE ON TEXT BOOKS

Much Interest Being Shown by Book Men in Court of Appeals Ruling.

Frankfort, Ky., June 11.—The approaching decision of the Court of Appeals in the State textbook case, which has been under submission since May 10, has resumed sway as principal topic of interest among politicians, publishers and school men.

Judge Robert L. Stout of the Franklin Circuit, held the whole adoption invalid on the ground that the commission had changed more than 50 per cent of the subjects.

The Court of Appeals may affirm his judgement, granting a writ of mandamus of Prof. E. B. Weathers, Jr., and require the State Textbook Commission to reassemble and make a new adoption; it may reverse him entirely; it may hold that the Heizer physiology, Grinstead speller and the history, sample copies of which were submitted in dummy form, were illegally adopted, but that the remainder of the adoption is valid; or it may hold that the commission exceeded its authority by changing too many subjects and require it to amend its adoption by renewing contracts on 50 per cent of the old books.

It has been conjectured that the court is taking pains, if the adoption is thrown out, to direct the commission exactly now to proceed in conformity with the law.

If Judge Stout is affirmed, Gov. Black will have the situation to deal with and he has not relieved the curiosity of those who would like to know how he will handle it. He said he is reserving expressions of his opinion until the court acts.

Kentucky Above Average In United War Work Collections.

Kentucky stands above the average of the 14 states comprising the central Army department in the collections of the United War Work Campaign Fund.

On May 20, according to the latest figures reached by H. S. Tucker, State Collector of the fund, 85 per cent of the $2,214,067, subscribed had been collected. The average for the central Army department states is about 82 per cent. Kentucky is among the leaders in the amount collected.

Thirty-three counties in Kentucky, 28 per cent of the total have paid their pledges in full. The honor list is:

Adair, Allen, Anderson, Boyd, Breckinridge, Breathitt, Breckinridge, Bullitt, Butler, Clinton, Cumberland, Elliott, Fleming, Fulton, Grant, Grayson, Green, Harlan, Hickman, Johnson, LaRue, Leslie, Lyon, McCreary, Magoffin, Marion, Metcalfe, Monroe, Owen, Powell, Robertson, Union, Webster.

Thirty-five other counties have collected 90 per cent or more of the total subscribed. This is 35 per cent of the total. That is, 68 counties out of the 120 in the state, or 56 per cent, have paid 90 per cent or more of their subscriptions.

Only 7 counties in the state have failed to pay less than half of the amount subscribed.

I the universities, colleges, etc., of the state, 13 have paid their subscriptions in full. They are, Millersburg Academy, Millersburg Female College, Baptist Women's Mission School, Kentucky Military College, Villa Madonna Academy, Union College, Loretto College, St. Mary's College, Nazareth Literary Institute, Langdon School, St. Vincent's College, Cumberland College, and Kentucky Female College. Sixty-five per cent of the amount subscribed has been paid. Eleven schools have added to their payments since the last report in March. They are, Lindsay-Wilson, Kentucky College for Women, Transylvania, University of Louisville, Sue Bennett Memorial, Bethel, Logan, Berea and Lincoln Institute. Of a total subscription of $32,350 nearly $21,150 has been paid.

VELVET

The Friendly Tobacco Home Again.

Velvet Tobacco, in its jolly red tin, is again a feature of cigar stores, big and little. There is again Velvet in the pipes, and contentment in the hearts of an army of American pipe smokers. And thereby hangs a tale. "Where's Velvet Tobacco gone?" those same folks inquired, when disappointed in their quest for that age-mellowed, friendly tobacco, which had made them and their pipes side partners for years.

Where was velvet? Ask the Red Cross man or the "Y" man. Ask the Salvation Army lassie. Ask the doughboy or the Jackie. Ask the hurried and harassed Quartermaster Corps that were responsible for "more beef, more bullets and more tobacco" for the boys under the tin derbies. Yes, that's why Velvet was not on some of the dealers' shelves. It was on the ships, in the cantonments, in the billets and the trenches. But Velvet is now wearing the red chevron of an honorable discharge.

The doughboy who smoked the "tinned Kentucky sunshine" in France, can now enjoy its friendly company on his own front porch. Those of us who willingly gave up luxuries that the boys over there might have them, can stuff our old pipes once more with Velvet and "smile, smile, smile."

And good old Velvet Joe! Well, he's back in the columns of this paper and glad to see you all again.

MAKING ALFALFA HAY REQUIRES EXACT METHODS OF HANDLING

Feeding Value of This Excellent Forage Product Is Greatly Diminished by Improper Treatment at Haying Time—Extra Cutting Reduces Return in Tonnage

Valuable as alfalfa is, it has its drawbacks. It is difficult to establish in some parts of the country, especially in the eastern States. It requires careful methods of handling. It is no crop for the careless farmer; but is a very profitable one for the farmer who will take the trouble to learn how to handle it from the seeding to the feeding. One of the important things to learn is just how to make alfalfa hay, according to specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Alfalfa does not cure at all readily, and good quality hay is hard to get. Especially is this true of the first cutting, which comes when heavy rains are apt to interfere with its proper curing. The bright green hay so common in the irrigated sections is almost never seen in the humid regions, due to injury from rain. In the West, where there is little rain during the haying season, the mowers are started in the morning and the hay raked into windrows the following day. The hay is then cocked or is stacked or baled direct from the windrow as soon as the hay is sufficiently cured. The raking commences as soon as the leaves are wilted, but when the stems are still green. It is cocked when the stems are "half dry." It may be stacked when moisture can no longer be twisted out of a whisp of the hay.

In the humid section of the country the process of curing the hay is much more difficult. The cutting frequently must be delayed several days on account of bad weather. The opera-mon in the irrigated sections is almost never seen in the humid regions, due to injury from rain.

The Side-Delivery Rake Is an Excellent Tool to Use in Making Alfalfa Hay, But It Should Be Used Before the Leaves Become Dry Enough to Shatter.

Time Of Cutting

Most farmers are prone to cut their alfalfa too early. They are anxious to get more cuttings, thereby thinking to get a bigger crop. The fact is, the extra cutting is frequently made at the expense of total tonnage. The real test of the size of the season's crop is total tonnage rather than number of cuttings. Where four cuttings are possible, three usually are desirable and more profitable. More hay is actually made for the season; and the plants are left in better condition for the winter.

The first growth usually is rank, sometimes causing the farmer to think it should be cut before it really is ready. The stage of growth is the indication for cutting rather than the size of the plants. The general rule is to cut alfalfa just as it is coming into bloom and the basal shoots are making a good start for the next crop. In the eastern States, cutting earlier may injure and frequently kills the plants. Cutting later lowers the feeding value of the hay.

Methods of Harvesting

Methods of making alfalfa hay vary in different sections of the country; but the basic principles are the same. The motto everywhere is: "Cure alfalfa hay quickly, with as little handling and exposure to the weather as possible." Rapid curing holds the leaves on better. Less handling knocks fewer of them off. This is important, because the leaves are the most nutritious part of the plant. High moisture contents sometimes makes it desirable to stack alfalfa hay instead of putting it in the barn. This is especially true of the first cutting. Build stacks carefully and in a shape that will expose as little of the hay to the weather as possible. Cover the tops with marsh grass, Sudan grass, millet, or some other long grass that will make a good thatch. Anchor a well-made thatch with rocks on the ends of wire on top of a properly made stack, and the hay will keep almost as well as in the barn. In fact, it may keep better, on account of the likelihood of new alfalfa hay heating in the mow. Particular care must be taken at the first cutting on this account.

If the hay is put in the mow, it is well to provide for some extra ventilation, especially if its moisture content is high. This can be arranged by placing horizontally at frequent intervals ventilators made of lumber. These may be simply a framework in triangular or rectangular shapes placed in the hay as the mow is filled.

Haymakers is an operation that must be done in a certain space of time that is short at best, and that is always liable to be made shorter by bad weather. For this reason there is no farm operation in which system and efficiency count for more; so it will pay every farmer to know just when and just how to make the most of his alfalfa crop.

* THE 17YEAR LOCUST *

By H. Carman, Entomologist and Botanist; Kentucky Experiment Station.

This remarkable insect has been the subject of some comment in local papers because of the fact that it is due to appear in Kentucky next spring. The latest previous appearance of this brood in the State was seventeen years ago, yet there are probably few residents in Fayette and other adjoining bluegrass counties who saw the insect at that time. As a matter of fact the seventeen year locust is gradually disappearing with the destruction of our forests, and each irruption shows it in diminished numbers. Even in regions where it appeared in some numbers in 1902, the injury to trees was not a matter of great moment, and what mischief was done to orchards and nurseries I had occasion to examine hundreds of young trees in 1902, and can say that the loss suffered from locust injury at that time in all of the forty Kentucky nurseries did not exceed ten dollars. I saw in Breckinridge county a few young apple trees, the stems of which were split by the punctures made by the locusts in depositing their eggs. In several other sections of the State dead tips of twigs of forest trees, due to the same cause, were seen in some numbers. At Demosville in Pendleton county I found the locusts very common, and have now at the station several hundred specimens of these insects collected at that time. It was impossible to get specimens in Fayette county so that the probability is that we shall see few or none of them here in 1919; if anywhere, a few may appear along the Kentucky River where the native forest growth has not been completely removed.

There is in short, no cause for alarm because of the visitation. Those who contemplate planting young trees can do so with complete assurance that they will not be damaged seriously, and in most sections of the State not at all, by locusts. Judging by the experience of 1902, they should issue from the soil during the latter part of May, and adults should all be gone by the middle of June. The young came from the twigs to enter the soil in 1902 from the middle to the last of July.

Some of the treatment suggested in articles going the rounds will be quickly recognized by practical men as arrant nonsense. For instance one might as well expect to suppress the insect by spraying trees with pink tea as with dilute carbolic, or acetic acid. Ordinarily no treatment is needed, but when the insects gather in numbers in a young orchard a spray of dilute lime-sulfur (as a deterrent and general disinfectant) or of coal-oil emulsion may be expected to help. Poultry and birds are effective checks on the insect.

An interesting feature of the irruptions of these insects is the appearance of two quite different forms, one small, the other larger. They have been described as distinct species, as noted below, but it is possible the small individuals result from a shortage of food while they are immature, due to the cutting down of trees upon which they are feeding. Starvation of animals when young is known to dwarf them permanently. Bulletin No. 107 of the Kentucky Experiment Station published in 1903 gives details as to the broods to appear in Kentucky, but is now out of print. A circular issued in 1902 for the purpose of gathering information as to the distribution of the insect in Kentucky is quoted below:

The 17-Year Locusts.

These insects always attract attention because of their sudden appearance in large numbers at long intervals of time. The irruptions have been thought to betoken war, famine and other disasters, but are the simple result of the fact that the insects require a long time to complete their growth.

When adults they do no injury except that caused by the killing and subsequent breaking off of the tips of twigs in which the eggs are laid. When they are very abundant, this pruning of trees may be severe. It is likely to be worst in apple orchards in the vicinity of woodland. The young leave the twigs at once on hatching and enter the ground, where they feed on roots until ready to come out and acquire wings.

The mature Cicada septendecim measures about one and one-eighth to one and one-fourth inch in length of body, and is provided with rather large, thin, glossy, red veined wings, which extend some distance beyond the tip of the abdomen. Its body is not as wide as that of the common Dog-day Cicada, which is to be known also by its green markings and wing-veins, as well as by its different note.

The note of the Cicada septendecim has been thought to resemble the word pharaoh, pronounced with a droning, nasal sound, dwelling on the a, and stopping rather abruptly, thus: Fa-a-a-a-a-r-yo.

The mature Cicada cassini is smaller, measuring in length of body from seven-eighths to about one inch in length, with the under side of the body largely black instead of red, and the wings throat with a decided wash of orange. The note is a simple rattle not very different from that of the Dog-day Cicada, but less sustained, and without any rhythmic variation in force. It is entirely different from the note of C. septendecim. In form and character of wings, as also in general color, it is much like the latter.

The stories told concerning their capacity to sting like a bee, or like a kissing bug, seem to be without foundation.

Health—Little appreciated when we have it. Most desired of all earthly possessions when we have it not. Yet, for most of us, keeping well is a simple matter, and getting well again when we are sick, is often wholly within our power.

Doctors tell us that about nine out of ten of human ailments are the result of constipation. Thousands of persons are constipated without realizing how much harm and even danger may result. An appalling list of diseases have their start in this neglect of ourselves. High blood pressure, nervous breakdown, apoplexy, arterio sclerosis, rheumatism—these are but a few of the many that result chiefly from constipation.

"The Story of a Well Man" is a helpful, entertaining booklet that tells a true story of a man suffering from nervous breakdown and high blood pressure in search of health. The success that attended his efforts has a personal application to you.

This booklet has been the means of helping thousands from what seemed confirmed invalidism to robust health. It also tells the wonderful story of Devonian, the American Medicinal Water, and what it has done for those who needed help to restore them to sound health.

In some way Devonian seems to get right at the root of physical troubles, and banishes their cause, thus restoring the bodily functions to normal activity and vigor. Devonian is prescribed and recommended by our most highly esteemed physicians. It is in every hospital and infirmary in the city.

If you are suffering from some ailment for which you have not been able to secure desired relief, try Devonian—a tablespoonful in a glass of water. We believe you will find the results most beneficial. Anyway, learn more about it by sending for "The Story of a Well Man." A copy will be sent you free.

Devonian is on sale at all drug stores.

REDUCED FARE ADDS INTEREST

Visitors to Methodist Centenary to Be Well Cared For.

REGISTRATIONS ON INCREASE

Housing Committee of the Celebration
Have More Than Forty Thousand Rooms in Private Homes at Their Disposal, Where Those Who Attend
Can Be Lodged as Conveniently as at a Hotel.

Announcement by the government that a special low rate of one and a third fares for the round trip has been authorized for the celebration.
Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, has tremendously increased the interest in that event and advanced manifold the inquiries and registrations coming from all parts of the United States. At headquarters the other day a single mail brought cash registrations from 14 separate states and South America.

The low rate has increased work for the special committees, which are responsible for housing the large influx of visitors now seen to be certain. Accommodations fall into three classes:

First, the hotels, which have an average daily capacity of 5,000 visitors.

The second field of accommodation will be in public buildings, which have been specially fitted up for this sort of service for the celebration. These include the State School for the Blind, the State School for the Deaf, the large barracks which were provided at Ohio State university for the student army training corps, and other buildings of a similar nature held in reserve should the throng exceed even present generous expectations.

The third line of convenience for the hospitality of Columbus is in the homes of the citizens themselves.
More than 40,000 rooms have been listed with the housing committee, and these are card indexed by type tion, telephone number and best means of access. Visitors to the Celebration can be lodged as conveniently as a clerk at a hotel assigns a visitor to his room. In order that there might be no misunderstanding, the committee in charge has a uniform rate for accommodations in private dwellings. The charge will be $1 per day for a single person in a room and $1.50 per day for two persons in a room.

Always generously provided with restaurants, Columbus at the present time is having its number largely reinforced by reason of many places being turned into restaurants which were occupied as cafes before May 24, when the state became dry. In addition to these, extraordinary facilities for feeding large numbers quickly are being installed in the exposition grounds.

Pictures of Christ.

All pictures of Christ now in existence represent the artists' imaginative conceptions, based more or less on Biblical and other descriptions of his personal appearance. The works of Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael are the earliest acceptable ones.

Kentuckian To See Prince Ride Goat Into Masonry.

Kentucky will be represented when the Prince of Wales "rides the goat" into Master Masonry June 23, it was announced yesterday. Capt. John H.
Cowles, formerly of Louisville, and now secretary general of the Scottish Rite Masons at Washington, has been selected to take the place of Dr. W.
Carson Black, of Lexington, grand master of the Kentucky lodge, who will be unable to attend the solemn rites in London when Prince Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, son of the king of England, becomes a Master Mason.

The occasion which Captain Cowles will attend in the Peace Jubilee celebration of the Grand Lodge of England, June 23 to 30. He will sail Saturday on the Mauretania. The installation takes place on the Prince's twenty-first anniversary, at which time he becomes eligible to Master Masonry. The ceremonies will be participated in by distinguished members of the order from all parts of the world.—Louisville Herald.

Tremendous Production Of Tractors This Year.

Washington, D. C.—The Department of Agriculture estimates that 314,936 tractors will be produced in the United States during the present year. In 1918, the production was 132,697. At the end of 1917 there were only 15,325 tractors on hand in the United States.

The widespread use of the tractor on the farm, brought about by the shortage of farm labor, due to the fact that a million farmer's and farm laborers were called into the military service, is responsible for this tremendous increase in the use of the tractor.

Despite the marked growth of the industry, Department of Agriculture officials believe that it is just the beginning, but are unable to predict what will be the ultimate effect on farming. But that the trend is toward motorized farming is undeniably shown by the fact that motor trucks are being purchased by farmers in ever-increasing numbers. Impetus to the use of tractors on the farm will be given, too, by the fact that thousand of young men called from the farms were trained in the use of motor vehicles during their army service, preparing them for the operation of motorized farm machinery.

the arrival of the atmospheric disturbance.

HILL ITEMS

The Rev. T. N. Williams is expected to preach at the Lucile Memorial next Sunday morning and evening.
Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. C. W. Satterfield returned from Herrin, Ill. Wednesday where she had been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Martha Lauder for several weeks. Mrs. Lauder died June
1. She was born in Black Braes, Scotland, June 6, 1851. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Satterfield was accompanied this far by her sister, Mrs. Jim Rawlins and Mr.
Rawlins, enroute to their home in Pineville, Ky.

Mr. Fraize Mattingly, of Owensboro, returned to his home Monday after being for two days the guest of his mother, Mrs. O. B. Mattingly.

Miss Mary Keil accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McKinney to their home in Tobinsport, to remain as their guest for several days.

Mrs. Wm. Perkins, of Dayton O., who has been visiting her mother,
Mrs. R. S. Pate and daughter, Mrs.
Rob. Wilson returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Satterfield, spent decoration day in Louisville.

Mrs. Burl Parson, of Vincennes, Ind., returned to her home last Wednesday accompanied by her mother, Mrs.
Nat Tucker.

We were aroused from a deep revery last Friday morning by an unfamiliar sound that we soon discovered to be an air plane. It passed through the farm and over the house and continued its flight in a westerly direction.

Mrs. Carl Benton came from her home in Louisville, Friday to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. O. B.
Mattingly.

Mrs. Fred Hawkins was down from Stephensport for a week's visit to relatives and to attend the decoration.

HARNED

Rev E. E. Bratcher, of Leitchfield,

Priceless Heirlooms to Hand Down in the Family

SUCH will be New Edison Phonographs, now that they're being encased in period cabinets of classic beauty. From now on, with the exception of but two models, all New Edisons, at whatever price, will be offered in cabinets portraying the exquisite art of the famous designers of period furniture's golden age. To perfect

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

the only phonograph which meets the searching tone test, cost $3,000,000 in experimental work. That this instrument should be encased in cabinets which reflect the last word in period furniture design is but fitting.

The Greatest of Them All

Head and Shoulders Above the Crowd
Stands Thomas A. Edison

"Head and shoulders" above the crowd of ordinary phonographs and "talking machines" stands Edison's great contribution to the world's enjoyment.

THE NEW DIAMOND

AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Am-berola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority.
Its tone—oh, what a revelation compared to metallic
"talking machines"
and shrill-sounding phonographs.
None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.
Then the Amberola Records, made for the Amberola alone. They are practically unbreakable and ever lasting—what a contrast to the
